

AMONG THE MORMONS

A Survey of Current Literature

Edited by Ralph W. Hansen

As man is now constituted, to be brief is almost a condition of being inspired.

George Santayana, Little Essays

The reason why so few good books are written, is that so few people who can write know anything.

Bagehot, Literary Studies: Shakespeare.

The bibliographical listing which follows includes books, pamphlets and reprints on Mormon topics, most of which were published in 1970. Because of the time lag between the last book bibliography printed in Volume 5, No. 1 and this issue the following bibliographical listing is longer than usual. We could have eliminated some of the ephemera but decided that this would detract from the value of our service. Rather than resort to paring the bibliography, the superfluous introduction has been minimized and concludes here.
