A Journal of Mormon Thought

is an independent quarterly established to express Mormon culture and to examine the relevance of religion to secular life. It is edited by Latter-day Saints who wish to bring their faith into dialogue with the larger stream of world religious thought and with human experience as a whole and to foster artistic and scholarly achievement based on their cultural heritage. The journal encourages a variety of viewpoints; although every effort is made to ensure accurate scholarship and responsible judgment, the views expressed are those of the individual authors and are not necessarily those of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints or of the editors.
SUBSCRIBE TO DIALOGUE

For more than thirty years, DIALOGUE has published some of the most thoughtful, provocative, and cherished articles, essays, short fiction, and poetry available about the Mormon experience. Each issue brings something new and surprising and can move, inform, affirm ... even change you. DIALOGUE is a peer-reviewed quarterly journal. We provide a forum for both established and new Mormon writers, thinkers, and scholars.
