DENISE GASSER {deegasser@gmail.com} is a fine artist, art facilitator, and mother of four young boys. Her paintings attempt to lift the veil on the appearance of things and reveal a kind of magical order within. Though subject matter varies, her work consistently embodies tension between organic and geometric, order and chaos, reality and dreams. Denise has lived and worked in the Bay Area, Vancouver, BC, and now resides near the mountains of Utah with her husband and children. She can be found on the web at denisegasser.com and on Instagram @denisegasserart

AMBER LEE WEISS {amber.lee.hertzog@gmail.com} is from Texas and lives in Houston. In addition to making art, Amber is an actress, serves in her ward's youth program, has a part-time retail job, is an army-wife, and loves to dabble in various creative pursuits. She is married and has three small daughters. Amber started to make magazine collages ten years ago but didn't start calling it art until two years ago. Her Instagram is @amberlieves.
