LAURA EREKSON was born in Oakland, California, and presently lives in Salt Lake City. Her printmaking and sculpture background influences her current body of work. Using found objects and plants, Laura's paintings are rich in texture, leaving behind details and fragments of the objects themselves. She received a BFA from Brigham Young University and a MAT from George Mason University. Laura's work has been exhibited across the nation including the Smithsonian in Washington, D.C.

SARAH WINEGAR lives in Salt Lake City with her husband and three kids. She carves and paints in the margins of the day, her work exploring the pushes and pulls of caretaking, partnership, and seeking out the divine.
